A Message from Rabbi Jacob Herber

HAPPY PURIM!

See hamentashen order details on page 11

Wednesday, March 16th at 7:00PM both in-person and streamed via Youtube

Dress at home in your favorite costume, or join us in-person! Watch the megillah reading and the shpiel.

Registration for in-person attendance is required at <https://hnt.wufoo.com/forms/xyccsgcf1wiapry/>

Youtube Live Stream will be available at h-nt.org/youtube

Online Megillah is available at: <https://www.rabbinicalassembly.org/sites/default/files/2021-02/Megillat%20Esther.pdf>

There's little doubt that when it comes to having loads of fun Purim is a holiday in a class unto itself. Between getting all dressed up in costume, eating delicious hamantaschen and drinking until we can't tell the difference between evil Haman and good Mordechai, trying to drown out the former's name during the Megillah reading with our groggers, enjoying a very entertaining shpiel we do our very best to respond with joy to the harrowing biblical narrative about the attempted genocide of a vaunted Jewish community.

Which also brings us to a responsible, serious side to Purim. Along with all the merriment we're also obligated to fulfill a commandment not known to many, the mitzvah of Matanot Laevyonim, giving gifts to those who are in need. Purim, a holiday that celebrates a world turned upside down reminds us how to live life in general. We learn from its customs that we have to celebrate with great joy whenever we can. Life is way too short to not appreciate the good in our world and the successes we experience. On the other hand, Purim teaches us that life isn't simply frivolous and that it's our responsibility to ensure everyone's happiness, and not only our own. So, this Purim I hope – regardless of the challenges by the pandemic, that you'll experience as fully as you can the joy of Purim. And I hope you'll also take the time to think about those less fortunate. Consider making a contribution of tzedakah to Jewish Family Service of Seattle, <https://www.jfsseattle.org/give/>, the HNT Mitzvah Corp (select Mitzvah Corp Fund in the dropdown menu) <https://h-nt.org/make-a-tribute/>, or join the effort to help resettle refugees in our community <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/20f0549a8a62aa0f94-refugee14>.

Hag Purim Sameah – Wishing a Happy and Festive Purim to all!

-RABBI JACOB HERBER

Message from the President

Our community remains strong thanks to our clergy, our staff, our board, and all our congregants! Thank you to everyone who participated in, and supported, this year's Legacy FUNdraiser. It was a great time, and not just because my husband won the trivia contest . One of the surprises we shared during the program was an acknowledgement of our administrative staff. This team has gone above and beyond over the past couple of years. They have managed to keep things running smoothly, supported our congregants, and learned about a lot of new things (e.g., Zoom, ethernet wiring, A/V equipment). You may not have seen much of them lately, but they are working hard. If you run across any of the following staff members, be sure to thank them.

Rebecca Frankel, Program Director

Glin Marten, Communications Manager

Melanie Miller, Operations Coordinator

Ashley Rowland, Administrative Assistant to the Clergy

Arianne Slayter, Director of Finance

Rei Walker, Accounting Assistant

I look forward to seeing everyone soon, B'ezrat HaShem.

Thank you,

- ILYSE WAGNER,
PRESIDENT, HNT BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Scholar-in-Residence Weekend with Rabbi Jeffrey Salkin "On Israel, Zionism, and the Jewish People"

April 1-3

"The Z Word: Israel Without Apology."

Friday, April 1, Friday Night Services, 6:00-7:15pm
(Subject to change)

What is it about Israel and Zionism that is so troublesome, to so many people? Israel was supposed to be the great Jewish unifier. Why is it the source of so much discord within the American Jewish community? A candid conversation about the many narratives that comprise the Israel conversation today.

"American Jews are from Mars; Israeli Jews are from Venus."

Saturday, April 2, Shabbat Morning Services, 9:30-11:30am
(Subject to change)

You know how siblings can be very different from each other? That's American Jews and Israel. Why are we so different, and how can we still sit together at the same family table?

"The Oldest Ism."

Saturday, April 2, Following Shabbat Morning Services 11:30am-12:15pm (Subject to change)

Anti-Semitism is alive and well in many places. Why? What is it about the Jews – and Judaism – that arouses so many strong feelings? How does Antisemitism present itself – in subtle and unsubtle ways?

"Some Of Our Best Friends"

Sunday, April 3, 10:00-11:15am

Jewish history is more than "they hated us; they tried to kill us; we won; let's eat!" In every age, there have been gentiles who have nourished and nurtured Jewish life – and Jewish lives.

About Rabbi Jeffrey Salkin

With the regular appearance of his award-winning blog, "Martini Judaism: for those who want to be shaken and stirred," published by the Religion News Service, Jeffrey Salkin has risen to the forefront of being one of American Judaism's most prolific and most-quoted rabbis and thought leaders.

Ever since his first book, Putting God on the Guest List: How to Reclaim The Spiritual Meaning of Your Child's Bar or Bat Mitzvah (Jewish Lights Publishing), Rabbi Salkin has been known for his writing, teaching and activism. His books are on such subjects as making Jewish ritual meaningful; struggling with the meaning of masculinity in today's world; interpreting Israel and Zionism to Jews and non-Jews; and the task of reclaiming Judaism's central role as a takes-no-prisoners, speak-truth-to-power-and-culture religious tradition.

Because of his national reputation as an American Jewish thought leader, the Chautauqua Institution, America's iconic educational and cultural community, invited Rabbi Salkin to deliver the keynote address for its week on religion, in summer, 2020.

Rabbi Salkin's essays have appeared in the Washington Post, The Huffington Post, Tablet, Mosaic, Forward, and JTA. He has discussed the American political scene on CNN and the BBC. He has contributed articles to scholarly journals. Several of his books have won national awards.

His colleagues have described him as "courageous," "always relevant," and "one of American Judaism's true public intellectuals."

Rabbi Salkin serves as the rabbi of Temple Israel in West Palm Beach, Florida. His hobbies include playing guitar, reading voraciously, and consuming vast quantities of coffee.

HaMotzi To-Go

We invite you to support our caterers while enjoying their delicious creations as a welcome break at the end of the week. Available for contactless pick-up, or contactless delivery to those who need. Guarantee your meal by placing your order a week in advance for Shabbat meals, by March 2 for hamentashen, or by ordering early for Passover Seders - limited availability.

Grateful appreciation to the Alfred and Tillie Shemanski Trust Fund and other generous donors for subsidizing meals for those in need.

Announcement:

The HaMotzi To-Go Shabbat meal program will be coming to an end after April. We will continue to offer to-go meals on holidays for the time being. This program began in April 2020 and while things may not be back to 'normal,' there are many more people comfortable eating at restaurants now and the hope of more catering opportunities on the horizon. The time has come to retire this program and look forward towards new and returning programs.

We have a lot to be proud of! For the past two years, these meals have provided many with a respite from cooking, a valued variety of cuisines, and comfort through difficult times. Over 450 families have ordered 6,800 meals, supporting our caterers with $200,000 of business, and generously donating over $26,000 to subsidize meals for those in need.

None of this would have been possible without our caterers, who consistently created fresh, fulsome menus, and worked tirelessly to prepare and pack endless to-go meals. I hope you will join me in extending heartfelt thanks to them, and to the volunteers who have spent countless Friday afternoons handing out meals with a friendly "Shabbat shalom!," and making deliveries from SeaTac to Sultan and everywhere in between. This labor of love (and what's a more Jewish way to show love than through food?) has been a team effort every step of the way.

Thank you for your support,

Rebecca Frankel

Christians and Jews in Conversation: Led by Rabbi Jay Rosenbaum and Reverend Elizabeth Riley

Review: Two Paths to One God: Jews and Christians in Holy Difference

Fifty years ago, the Christian world revolutionized its relationship with the Jewish people by rejecting the teaching of contempt, the belief that Jews were to be blamed for the death of Jesus. This led to a dramatic decrease in Christian antisemitism. But, with antisemitism on the rise, the transformation of Jewish-Christian relations can serve as a model for all of us.

Continuing the work we began last year, we are offering a series of experiences and classes aimed at increasing Jewish-Christian understanding.

The Shabbat/Sabbath in Jewish and Christian Experience

At Herzl-Ner Tamid Congregation (in person): Friday night, March 4th, 6pm
At Emmanuel Episcopal Church (in-person): Sunday, March 13th, 10am

This will be a face-to-face encounter with Jewish and Christian spiritual practice. Members of the Christian community will have the opportunity to attend a shabbat (Sabbath) worship service at Herzl-Ner Tamid congregation on a Friday night. And, members of the Jewish community will have a chance to attend a Sunday worship service at Emmanuel Episcopal. There will be time for questions and discussion.

Israel Matters: How Christians and Jews May Think Similarly and Differently About the People and the Land

Monday nights on Zoom, March 14, 21, 28, April 4, 7-8:45pm

We will explore Jewish and Christian perspectives on what Jews call The Land of Israel and what Christians (and sometimes Jews) often refer to as The Holy Land. What are the roots of our perspectives? Where do we differ? And, where can we find common ground?

A Message from Director of Education Dr. Eliyahu Krigel, CJE

A Dvar

“If you will it, it is no dream.”
-Theodor Herzl (1860 - 1904)

When we are successfully able to manifest our dreams, we have the potential to bring what we care most about into the world in a tangible way for all to witness and experience. Herzl’s quote above speaks to this strength of will and effort. When I continued my career at HNT on June 1, 2015, one of my attempts to bring my one of my dreams to fruition was to manifest what I had been calling the Bar and Bat Mitzvah Camping Trip. I wanted to bring this informal trip to HNT because I believed in the great potential of the program to engage students on their own level. As you might already know I wrote my thesis for my Masters in Jewish Education on a program I was then calling the Bar and Bat Mitzvah Camping Trip when I was a student at the Jewish Theological Seminary. Since 2000 I have been passionate about creating a retreat experience for middle school students to capture their attention post b’nai mitzvah and engage them, so the learning is meaningful and relevant.

One of the greatest challenges we face in Jewish education is post b’nai mitzvah drop out or disengagement. To combat this trend, we created the Becoming a Leader Trip at HNT. Now in its 8th summer, the trip has become a cornerstone to our youth program. Alumni of the trip return each year because of the connections made and the values of leadership learned and acquired. This year we will spend time at Camp Solomon Schechter on their ropes course and waterfront. We will also have a white-water rafting experience on the first day. Thank you to the HNT clergy and leadership for always believing in the Becoming a Leader Trip. To sign up and for additional information please see the link and blurb below:
